Report of the visit to “Sarwaha Pariwartan Kendra” Chikhalwada Trymbakeshwar dated 23/04/15

Social Welfare cell of MET’S Institute of Pharmacy had organized a visit to a tribal rehabilitation center “Sarwahara Pariartan Kendra” located at Chikhalwadi, Trimbakeshwar.

A team of Principal Dr. Sanjay j. Kshirsagar, Prof. Moreshwar Patil and Mr. Pavan Udavant accompanied by Hon. Uttamji Kamble (Chief Editor Sakal Media group and Advisor SWC, MET IOP BKC) visited the School run by Sarwahara Group.

Trustee of Sarwahara Mr. Nanasaheb Shinde welcomed guests and introduced the various activities conducted by them.

Dr. Kshirsagar interacted with the kids of the school and asked them their routine. Kids from KG presented poems in front of the guests.

This session was very joyful and satisfying as all witnessed the energy and enthusiasm of the kids from remote place who are deprived from the luxurious life.

Founder of Sarwahara Pariwartan Kendra Mr. Nanasaheb Shinde explained the journey of the group which initially started with a small activity of distribution of drugs to the tribal peoples. Looking at the need of tribal population a group of people come ahead and started a centre for rehabilitation of tribal people with a name Sarwahara Pariwartan Kendra.

Apart from running an English Medium School which itself is a unique activity specially in a tribal remote place like Chikhalwadi, sarwahara also assist several Women self help group and trains the women of self help group for various activity.

SWC, MET’S IOP BKC donated equipments worth 5100/- to Sarwahara from the funds raised by staff members of IOP.

Dr. Kshirsagar and faculty members left the Sarwahara with a thought of revisit and continuation of help after an enjoying and interactive session with tribal kids.
