

MET'S Institute of Pharmacy

ACTIVITY REPORT (TRAIN THE TRAINER)

Name of Activity: Guest lecture entitled Introduction of Neurodivergence in students

Resource person: Dr Supriya Malsane Patil, Psychologist and Educational Counselor, Sunshine Counseling and Therapy Centre, Nashik

Day and Date- Monday 20/01/2025

Participants	Staff&Student	Class and Course
	Teaching staff	B. Pharm., M.Pharm, Pharm D.

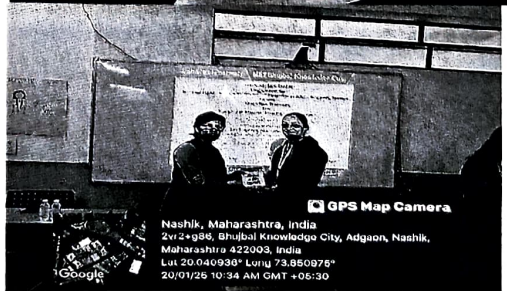

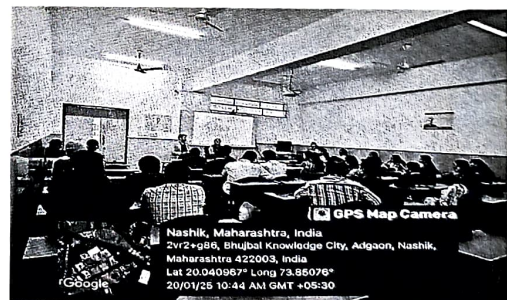

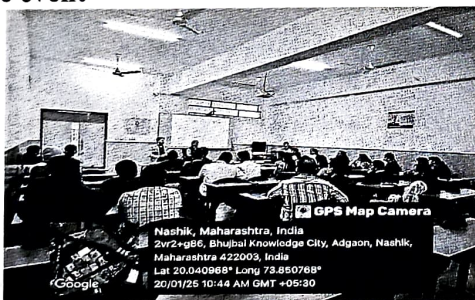

Details of the Program : Guest lecture organized for teaching staff on neurodivergence in students

Program Objective Achievement

PO1	Pharmacy Knowledge		PO7	Pharmaceutical Ethics	✓
PO2	Planning Abilities	✓	PO8	Communication
PO3	Problem Analysis	✓	PO9	The Pharmacist and society
PO4	Modern Tool Usage		PO10	Environment and Sustainability
PO5	Leadership Skills		PO 11	Lifelong Learning	✓
PO6	Professional Identity	✓

Objectives of the Activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understanding Neurodivergence: To educate teachers on the concept of neurodivergence and its various forms, including ADHD, autism, dyslexia, and other conditions. Identifying Neurodivergent Traits: To help teachers recognize signs and behaviors associated with neurodivergence in students. Promoting Inclusive Teaching: To provide strategies for creating an inclusive and supportive classroom environment for neurodivergent students.
Benefits of the activity	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Teachers will gain deeper insights into neurodivergence and its impact on learning and behavior. Helping teachers distinguish between behavioral issues and neurodivergent traits, reducing potential conflicts

Photos of the event

Principal

Committee- IQAC

Coordinator- Dr. Santosh S. Chhajed