

STUDENT SATISFACTION SURVEY – 2019-20

MET's Institute of Pharmacy, Bhujbal Knowledge City, Nashik

- ✓ Student satisfaction survey for 2019-20 was designed emphasizing teaching-learning process and student support system.
- ✓ The survey was conducted by using google-form tool.

Responses were analyzed and interpreted as follows:

Survey Analysis:

1. Percentage of syllabus is covered

Response: More than 70 % of students confirmed about above 85% completion of syllabus

2. Preparation of teacher for the class

Response: More than 95% students stated that teacher prepare satisfactorily & thoroughly for the lecture

3. Communication ability of teachers

Response: More than 85 % of students responded that teachers have very effective communication ability

4. Teacher's teaching approach

Response: Around 80% of the students responded that teaching approach of teachers are very good to excellent

5. Fairness of Internal Evaluation Process

Response: Around 84 % students were satisfied and rated internal evaluation process as fair and transparent.

6. Assignment Performance Discussion

Response: Almost 80% students confirmed about regular discussion of assignments

7. Institute's active interest in promoting internship, student exchange, field visit opportunities

Response: Around 73 % students agreed to the active initiation of institute for better internship, exchange and field visit provisions apart from academic curriculum

8. Cognitive, social and emotional growth by teaching and mentoring

Response: More than 84% of students mentioned about their very well to significant growth in cognitive, social and emotional domain by teaching and mentoring process

9. Awareness about expected competencies, course outcomes and program outcomes

Response: More than 84% students responded affirmatively that every time teachers inform them about their expected competencies, course outcomes and program outcomes

10. Opportunities to learn and grow

Response: 92.8% of students agreed that institute provides multiple and frequent opportunities to learn and grow

11. Illustration of the concepts through examples and application

Response: Almost 92% students stated that almost every time teacher explains concepts through examples and application for thorough understanding

12. Identification of individuals' strength and encouragement for the same

Response: Around 83% of students agreed that teachers and mentors help to identify their strength and encourage them respectively.

13. Identification of individuals' weaknesses and help to overcome them

Response: More than 80% students positively responded that every time mentors help to identify their weakness and help to overcome it.

14. Engagement of students in the monitoring, review and continuous quality improvement of the teaching learning process

Response: Almost 90 % students agreed that they are actively engaged in the monitoring, review and continuous quality improvement of the teaching learning process

15. Use student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies

Response: Almost 90 % of students strongly affirmed that student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used to a great extent

16. Encouragement to participate in extracurricular activities

Response: 94 % students agreed about their encouragement from mentor and teachers for active participation in extracurricular activities for overall personality development.

17. Inculcation of soft skills, life skills and employability skills by institute

Response: 92.8% of the students confirmed that efforts are made for inculcation of soft skills, life skills and employability skills by the institute at a larger extent

18. Percentage of teachers use ICT tools

Response: Almost 94 % students stated that more than 70 % teachers of institute use ICT tools for teaching learning process.

19. Overall quality of teaching-learning process

Response: 91.5% students agreed that overall quality of teaching-learning process at the institute is very good.