

MET'S Institute of Pharmacy

ACTIVITY REPORT

Name of Activity- Ganesh idol collection and prevention of river pollution

Day and Date- Tuesday 09/09/2022

Courtesy- Nashik Municipal Corporation

Participants	Staff & Student	Class and Course
	05+25	T.Y. B. Pharmacy students (NSS Volunteers)

Details of the Program

Student and staff members of the institute motivated the civilians to donate the lord Ganesh idols to the corporation and collected more than 500 idols of lord Ganesh and contributed in the prevention of river pollution on the banks of Godavari River, Dasak Ghat, Nashik. The NSS Volunteers were accompanied by NSS Program officer Prof. Rahul Sable, SWC staff coordinator Dr. pavan Udavant, under the guidance of principal Dr. Sanjay Kshirsagar.

Program Objective Achievement

PO1	Pharmacy Knowledge		PO7	Pharmaceutical Ethics
PO2	Planning Abilities	✓	PO8	Communication
PO3	Problem Analysis		PO9	The Pharmacist and society	✓
PO4	Modern Tool Usage		PO10	Environment and Sustainability
PO5	Leadership Skills	✓	PO 11	Lifelong Learning
PO6	Professional Identity

Objectives of the Activity	To create awareness for environment sustainability To motivate the civilians
Benefits of the activity	Contribution in the prevention of river pollution
Social Media links	https://www.facebook.com/101408854942632/posts/627241315692714/?sfnsn=wiwspm

Photos of the event

(Signature)
Principal

Committee- SWC and NSS

(Signature)
Coordinator- Dr. PB Udavant Prof. RR Sable

PRINCIPAL
MET's Institute of Pharmacy
Adgaon, Nashik

